Dear sirs/madam;

You are reporting this account inaccurately. I have called your company about several times about this error, and yet you still are reporting this inaccurately. I have never been late, which is why I set up a pre-pay account with you.

I have enclosed a copy of the Federal Trade Commission's Notice to Furnishers of information. It explains your responsibilities under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA). Please send me copies of all records relating to the account, including;

- Account applications made on paper, online, or by telephone
- Account statements or invoices
- Records of payment or charge slips
- Delivery addresses associated with the account
- Records of phone numbers used to activate or access the account
- Signatures on applications and accounts
- Investigators report
- Please send me a letter explaining what you have done to;

- Inform the bureaus that the entry is wrong.

- Stop ignoring my requests.

- Stop reporting information about the debt to credit reporting companies

- Provide me with the records with the records I request

Thank you for your cooperation,
Sincerely,

Wagner, Peter D.
